

Curriculum Vitae

Felicity Jensen, Child and Family Social Worker

Warm, compassionate and knowledgeable social work services for children of separated parents and their families

Professional Roles:

- Regulation 7 Family Consultant, Family Report Writer and Single Expert Witness in the Family Law jurisdiction
- Specialist Child Consultant in Child Inclusive Mediation
- Social Assessment Report writer
- Child/parent estrangement counselling and reintroduction
- Therapeutic Social Work services for children and adults

Tertiary Education:

2014	Masters of Social Work	Deakin University
2007	Bachelor of Arts (Double Major Psychology)	University of Queensland

Professional Memberships:

- Australian Association of Social Workers
- Therapeutic Family Law Practitioners Association
- Family Law Practitioners Association
- Child Protection Practitioners Association Queensland

Professional Experience:

February 2024 – Present	Social Worker in Private Practice	Self-employed
October 2023 – February 2024	Child Protection Officer co-located with Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia	Department of Child Safety, Seniors and Disability Services
May - August 2023	Senior Practitioner, Children and Families	Child and Family Services Team, Legal Aid Queensland
July 2017 – May 2023	Family Consultant/Court Child Expert	Court Children's Service Brisbane,

		Family Court and Federal Circuit Court of Australia
December 2010 – July 2017	Court Services Advisor Acting Senior Team Leader (Child Protection/Family Law Interface and Adoption)	Court Services, Child Safety Queensland
January – December 2015	Social Worker	Chermside Community Mental Health Service, Prince Charles Hospital
September 2007 – December 2010	Child Safety Officer Court Coordinator Permanency Planning Officer, One Chance at Childhood	Child Safety Queensland